TARA'S PURE LAND

RESTING WITH THE SANGHA ~THE COLUMBARIUM~

The Zhitro Temple and Columbarium offers a sacred space where your loved ones and our sangha members can feel connected to you after death. Here, beautiful brass stupas hold your ashes within peaceful niches, creating a place for quiet reflection on life's impermanence and celebration of what made your life meaningful. This space invites homage and gratitude for the life you lived and the connections that continue beyond physical presence. Your legacy of practice and devotion serves as a beacon of inspiration to those who will study and practice on this same land in the future.

"Zhitro is like a bath of light. You are sending this light bath of rainbow light to the deceased, and what you are doing is you're clearing their karma - so this is a fantastic gift."
